Executive Overview

As part of the formal observance of the Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee Fortnight Celebration (“ড. শ্যামাপ্রসাদমুখোপাধ্যায়স্মৃতিপক্ষউদযাপন”), Sree Chaitanya College, Habra, successfully organized a joint Padayatra and Campus Cleaning Drive. 3. Key Activities: Translating Ideals into Action

Part I: The Padayatra – A Procession of Homage

The event commenced at 02:00 PM with a solemn awareness march (Padayatra) that served as a moving tribute to Dr. Mukherjee.

- Symbolism: Led by the college's NCC cadets and NSS volunteers, the marchers moved through the campus and surrounding areas, carrying the message of national service and self-reliance—principles championed deeply by Dr. Mukherjee.
- Community Engagement: The procession bridged the gap between the institution and the local public, reminding the community of Dr. Mukherjee's monumental role in shaping the region's academic and political landscape.

Part II: Campus Cleaning Drive – Service as Tribute

True homage to a visionary leader lies in action rather than words. Following the Padayatra, volunteers channelled Dr. Mukherjee's philosophy of Shramdaan (voluntary labor) and civic duty into a rigorous cleanliness drive.

- Internal Action: The NCC and NSS units thoroughly cleaned the college grounds, corridors, and shared student areas, honoring the institution's educational environment.
- External Outreach: The cleaning operations extended directly into the adjoining neighborhoods, demonstrating a collective responsibility toward societal well-being and environmental hygiene

4. Impact and Conclusion

The joint mobilization of the NCC and NSS units successfully elevated a standard campus activity into a profound act of remembrance. By maintaining the cleanliness of Sree Chaitanya College, Habra and its surrounding public spaces, the student body paid the highest form of homage to Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee: embodying his ideals of disciplined citizenship, community service, and nation-building.
